

With Sustainable Lab initiatives launched at Imperial College London in late 2021, laboratories across the Faculties of Engineering, Medicine and Natural Sciences have engaged with the LEAF initiative.

The Business School is not considered for Sustainable Lab initiatives as there are no laboratory spaces within the Faculty.

Overall Engagement across Imperial at end of April 2024

Based on Laboratory room numbers shared upon receiving awards against the total number of laboratory spaces at Imperial College London.

Faculty of Engineering

Full Engagement Data
Pending – To be available in
2023-24 Q4 Report

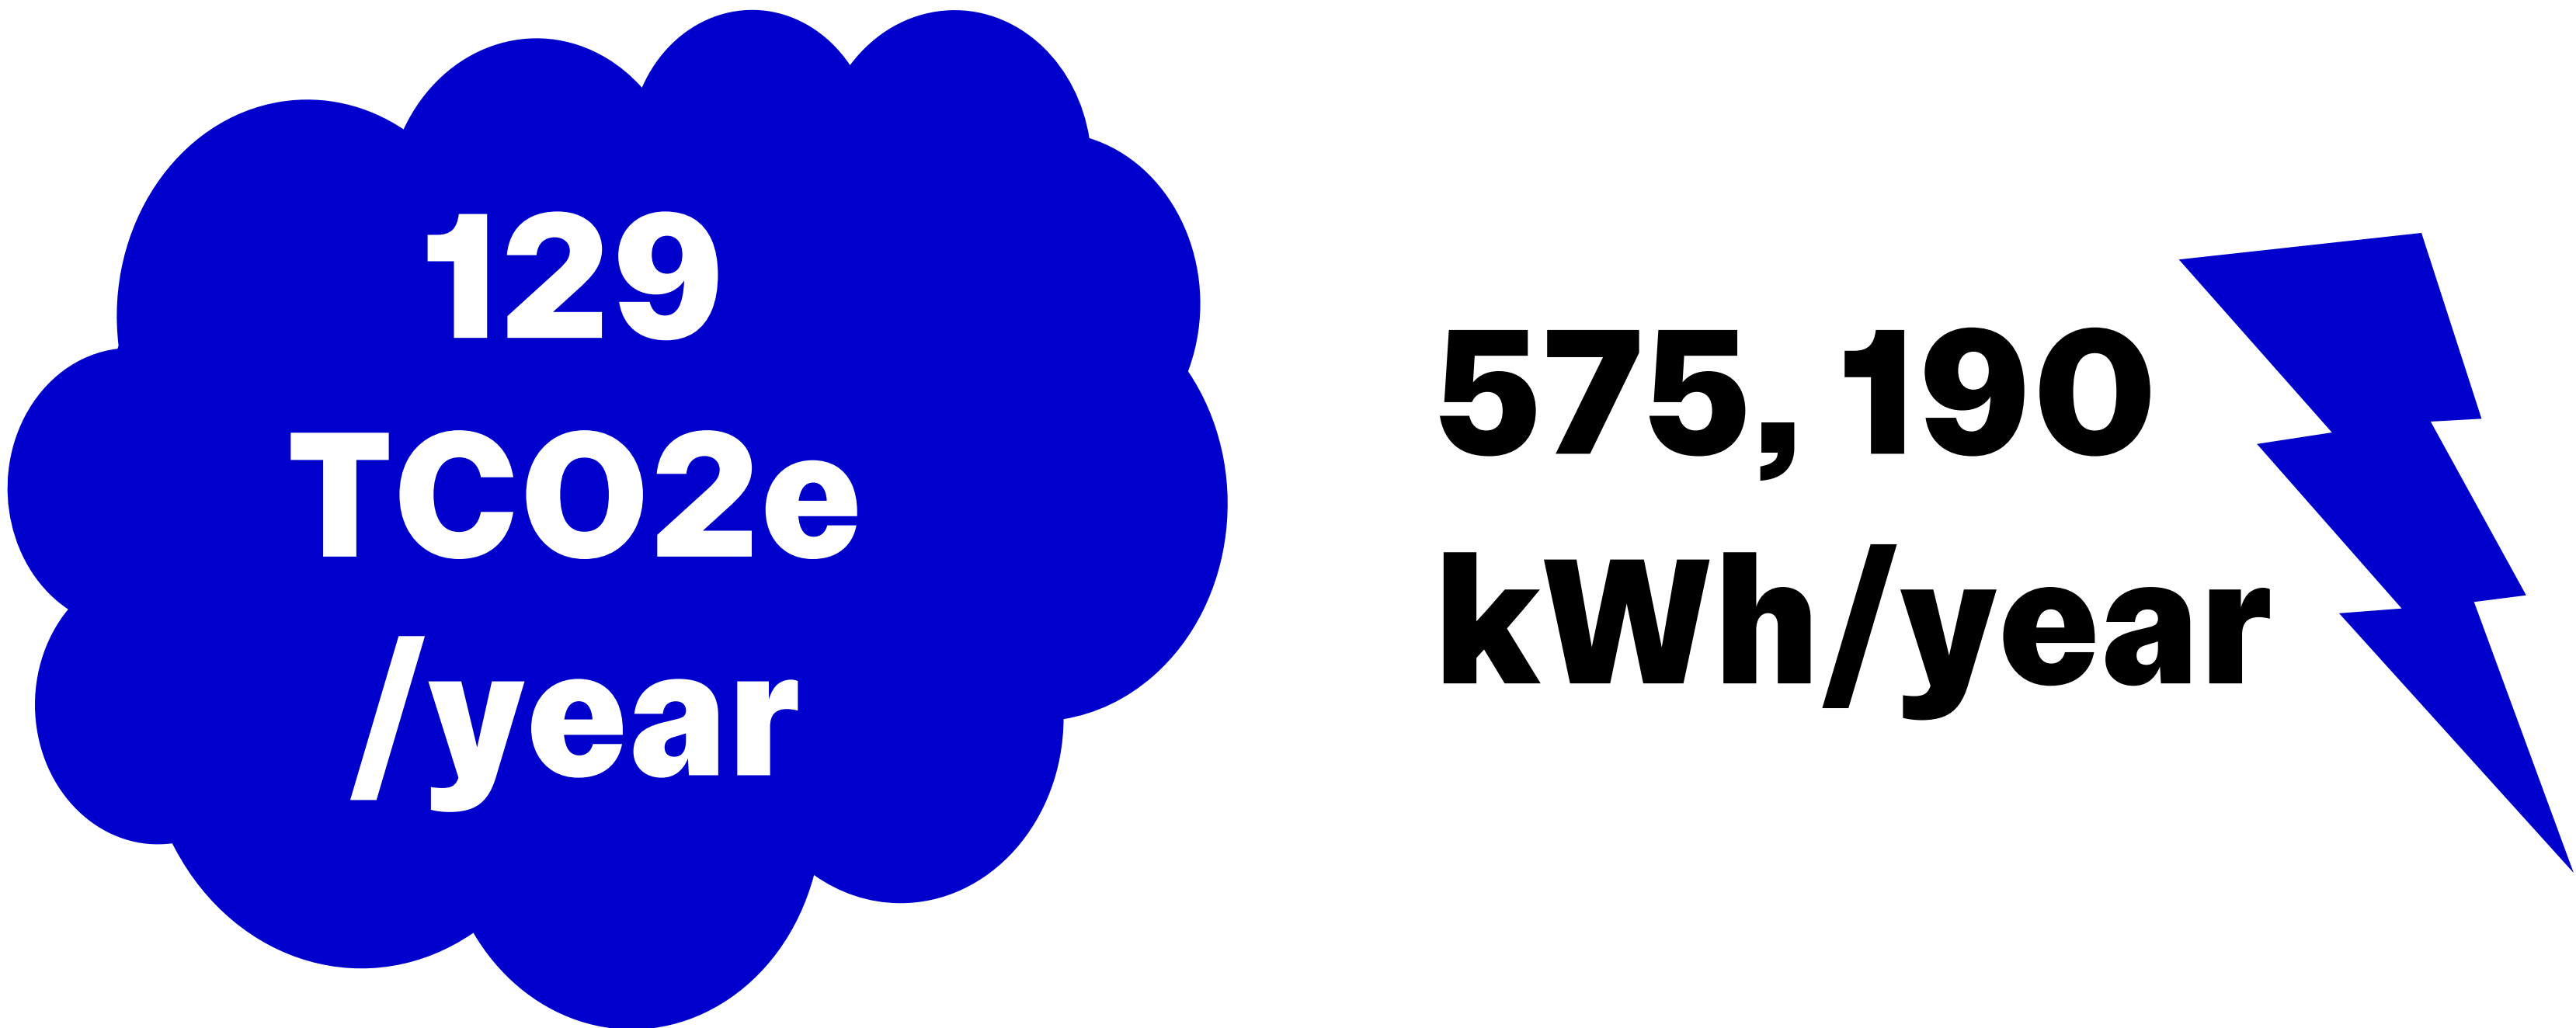

Faculty of Medicine

29% Engagement

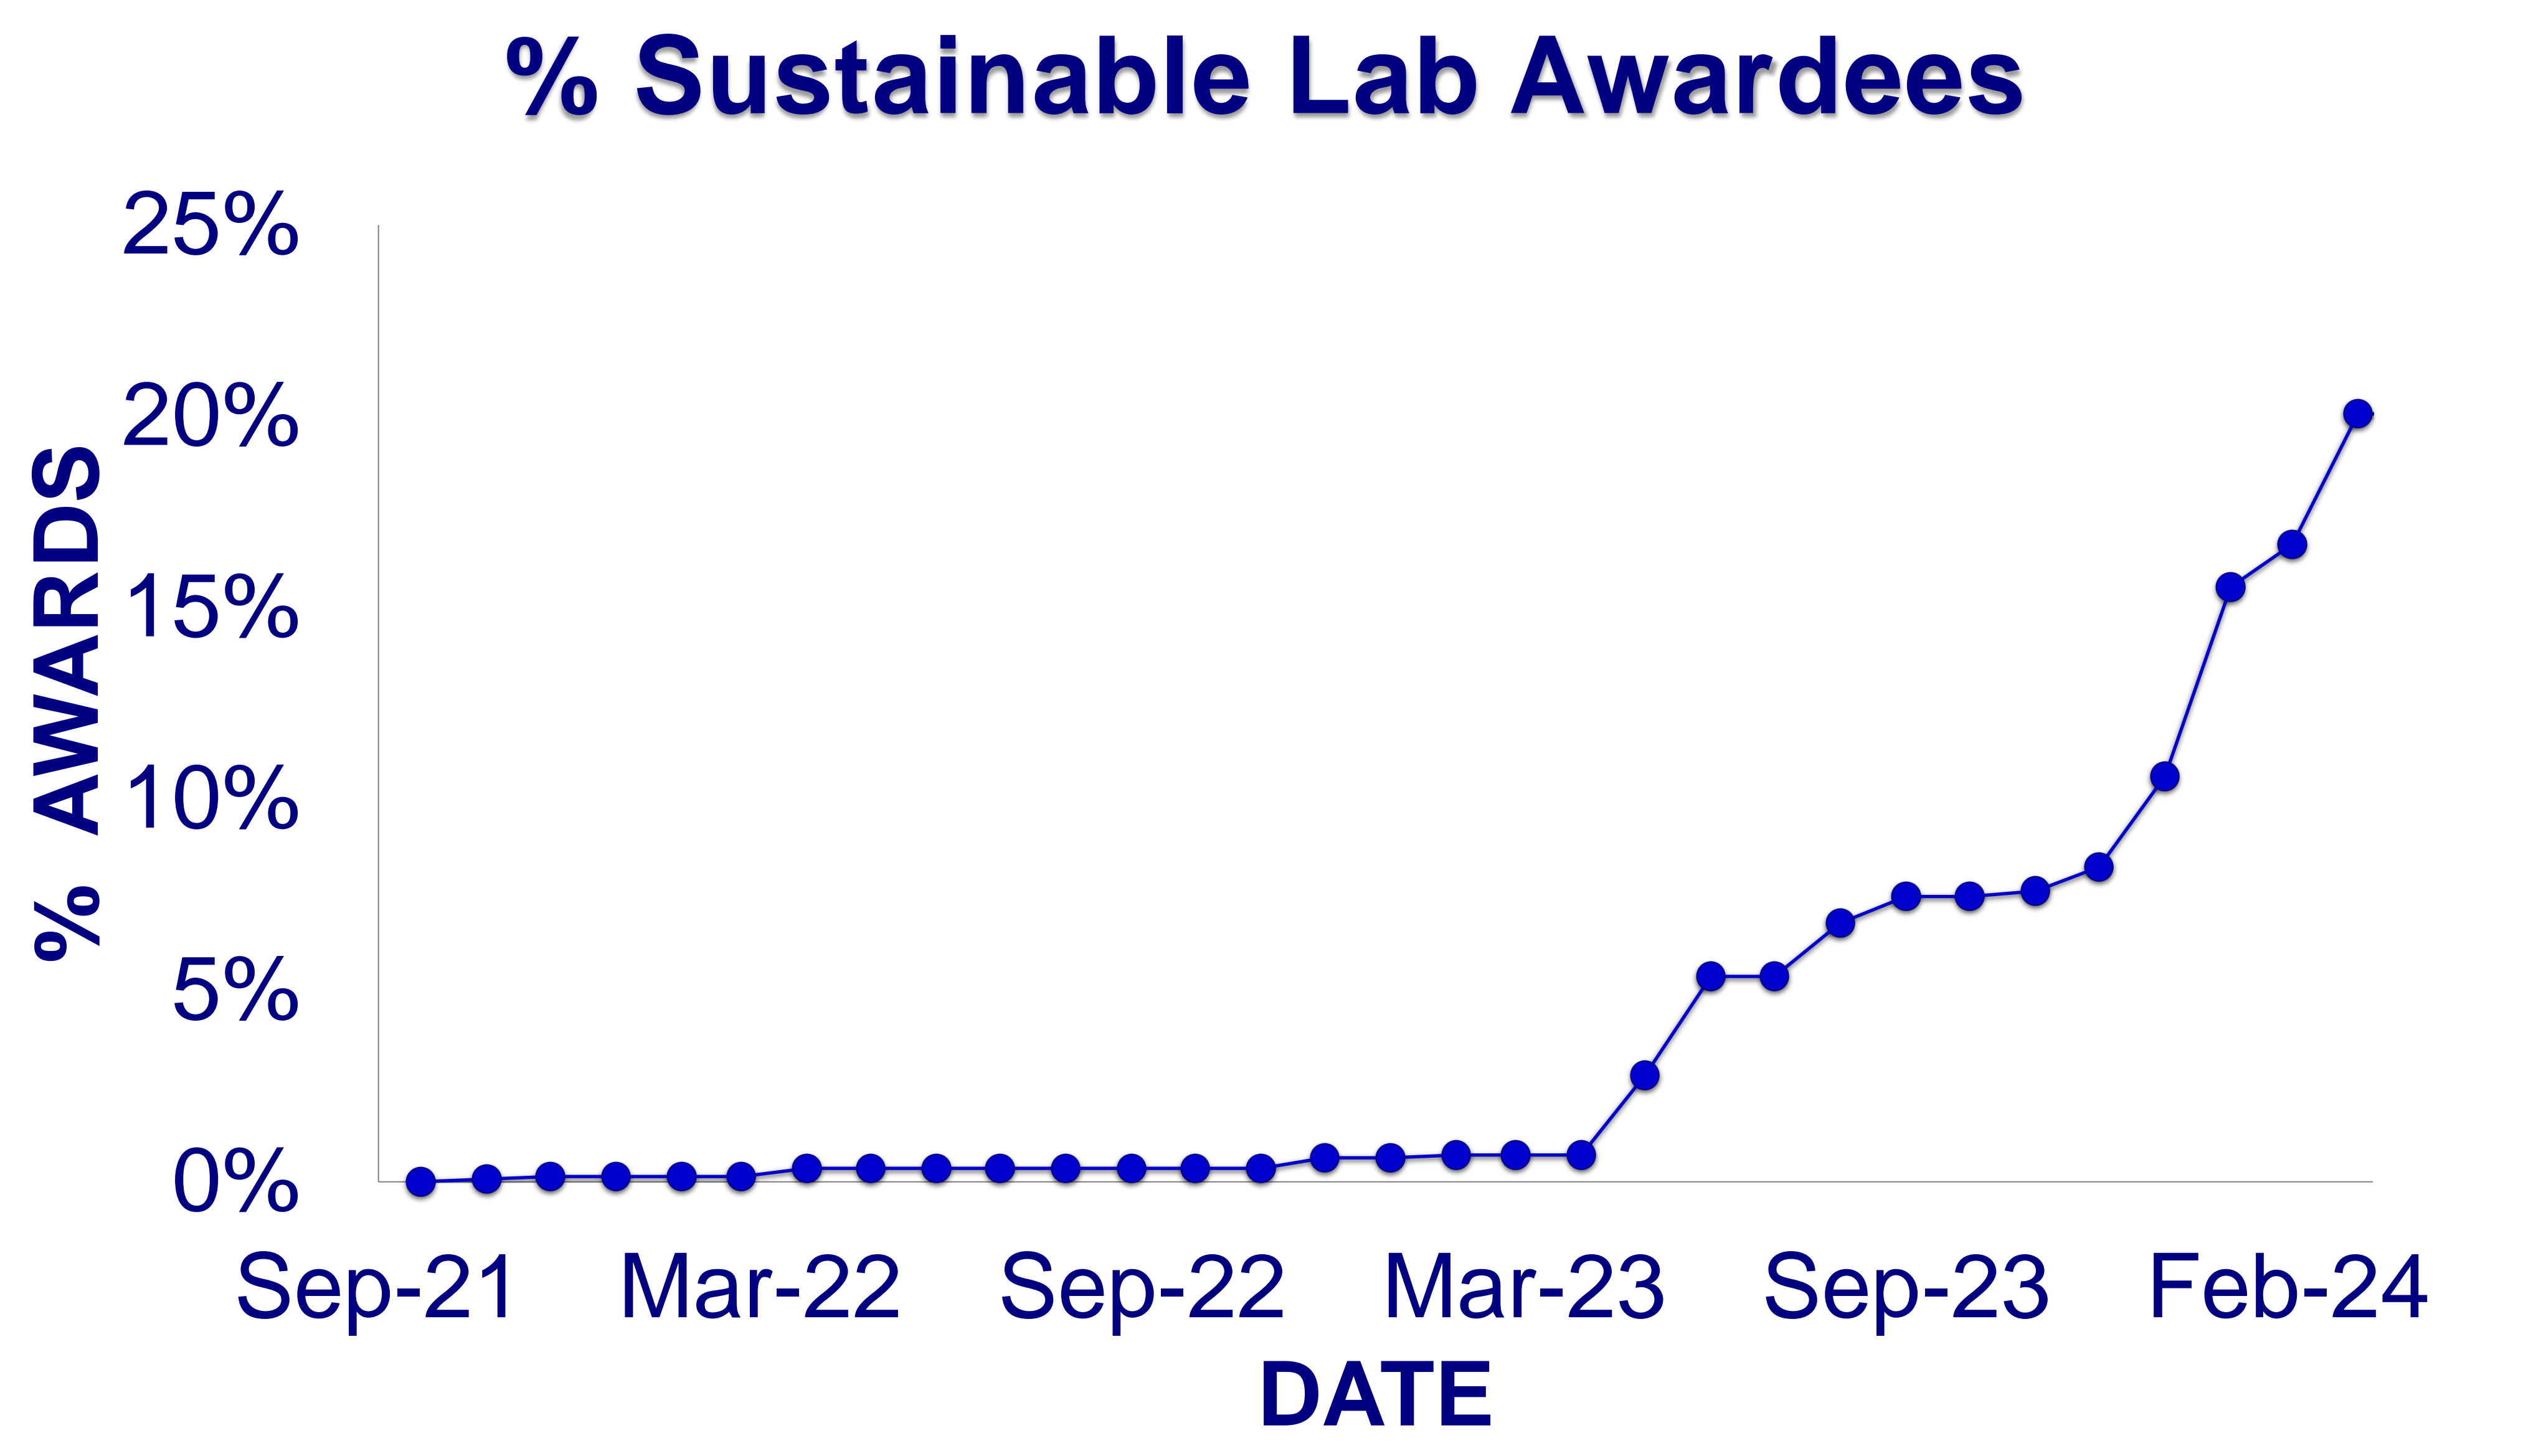

Faculty of Natural Sciences

6% Engagement

The Sustainable Lab Awardees in Q3 saved:

Estimations based on LEAF calculator tools filled in by laboratories on submission.

Lab Awardees in Q3

Throughout Q3, 13 new applications were approved for Sustainable Lab awards covering 148 lab rooms.

Gold (LEAF)

- Teaching Lab 102 – Chemical Engineering

Silver (LEAF)

- Centre for Inflammatory Disease – Immunology and Inflammation
- Adult Infectious Disease – Infectious Disease

Bronze (LEAF)

- LG23/LG27 Fuel Cell Lab – Earth Science and Engineering
- Thurston Lab – Infectious Disease
- MSK Lab – Surgery and Cancer
- Division of Surgery at St Mary’s and Hammersmith – Surgery and Cancer
- Autoclaving – Chemistry
- Tate and Barnard – Chemistry
- GSB NHGS – 01, 02, 03 – National Heart and Lung Institute
- Briscoe – Chemistry
- H012 – Physics
- Centre for Inflammatory Disease – Immunology and Inflammation